Hide contacts from Spotlight and Look Up search

Spotlight search may be enough to evade your privacy and display sensitive contacts. Contacts will inadvertently appear when you are searching for something else. Follow these steps to hide iPhone contacts from Spotlight and Look Up.

- 1. Open Settings.
- 2. Tap Siri & Search.
- 3. Scroll down and select Contacts.
- 4. Scroll through the list and uncheck all sliders.

Your contacts list will now be removed from Spotlight and Look Up. Additionally, you may also want to disable Phone from the list so that your recent phone calls are not visible there either.

Hide contact name on iPhone using a nickname

Did you know you can hide your contact name? Follow these simple steps to mask a contact using a nickname. Note: This method cannot be done in bulk and will have to be done individually for every contact. This method will not completely remove the contacts, but it will just hide a few names.

- 1. Open Contacts and select the contact you want to nickname.
- 2. Tap Edit on the top right corner.
- 3. Scroll down and tap Add Field.
- 4. From the list opened, tap Nickname and enter the desired nickname.
