Things to know before sending multiple photos on WhatsApp

Before you begin sending multiple photos on WhatsApp, there are a few things you need to know.

• Image compression: WhatsApp automatically compresses images to reduce file size and optimize for faster uploads and downloads. While this is helpful for saving data and ensuring quick delivery, it can significantly reduce the quality of your photos. If maintaining photo quality is important, ensure you're opting to send HD photos in WhatsApp rather than regular photo attachments.

- File size limit: WhatsApp has a file size limit of 2GB per file for media, including photos, videos, and documents.
- Number of photos and videos: When using the media picker inside WhatsApp, you can send up to 30 files at once. If you need to share more, you must select images from the Photos app. We will discuss the steps for both methods.
- Stable internet connection: Ensure your Wi-Fi or mobile data is stable for smooth uploads and quick delivery. Also, if you're sending videos along with images, faster internet ensures the video uploads in 720p resolution.
- App permissions: Make sure WhatsApp has access to your Photos app. Else, you won't be able to select and send your photos. To do so, go to Settings, tap on Apps, and select WhatsApp. Now, tap Photos, select Full Access, and confirm by tapping Allow Full Access.

as documents in WhatsApp.

Method 2: Using the Photos App

If you find selecting multiple photos from the image picker inside WhatsApp non-intuitive, you can choose photos in the Photos app first and, then share them via WhatsApp instead. Here's what that looks like:

- 1. Launch the Photos app on your iPhone.
- 2. Tap Select in the top-right corner and choose the photos you want to send.
- 3. Tap the share icon (a square with an upward arrow) in the bottom-left corner.
- 4. Select WhatsApp from the Share Sheet.

- 5. Choose the contact or group you want to send the photos to.
- 6. Tap Next in the bottom-right corner.
- 7. Select HD to make the images high quality.
- 8. Tap the send icon to share the selected images.

The only drawback of this method is you can't edit the images while sending. You need to edit them in the Photos app first. If this matters to you, you should use the first method instead.
