

Shortcuts are custom sequences of actions that let you get things done quickly and efficiently. For instance, you can create shortcuts to open your favorite music playlist, get directions to your next appointment, etc. Moreover, you can share shortcuts with others to help them out too. This means that they won't have to go through the effort of creating the shortcut themselves. So let's check out how to share your shortcuts on iPhone and iPad.

Note: To share a shortcut with your friends, you must turn on iCloud sync and allow untrusted shortcuts.
